

Call for Sponsorship and Exhibition

Advanced Ceramic and Application Conference 14, 21-23rd September 2026, Belgrade, Serbia

Dear Sponsors,

It is our great pleasure to invite you to financially support the Advanced Ceramic and Application Conference 14 which will be held in Belgrade, 21-23rd September, 2026. The Conference is organized by the Serbian Ceramic Society in cooperation with the Institute of Technical Sciences of SASA, the Institute for Testing of Materials, Institute of Chemistry Technology and Metallurgy, Institute for Technology of Nuclear and Other Raw Mineral Materials, Institute for General and physical chemistry and with the support of the Ministry for science, technological development and innovations of the Republic of Serbia.

Advanced Ceramics include well known ceramic materials produced using novel processing techniques as well as a broad range of the innovative compounds and composites. Such new materials with improved performances already bring a new quality in our everyday life. The chosen Conference topics cover contributions on design and manufacturing of novel multifunctional ceramic materials and nanoceramic devices, application of novel ceramic materials in a wide variety of fields (environment, biomedical, electronics and information technology), fundamental research and computer-aided design and modeling of new ceramics products.

In the name of the Organizing Committee, it is my pleasure to invite you to give financial support to this prestige Conference. This will be an immeasurable contribution to the quality of this scientific event.

Sincerely,

President of Serbian Ceramic Society

Dr. Nina Obradović
